Another “Most Wanted” Criminal Captured by the Trump Administration

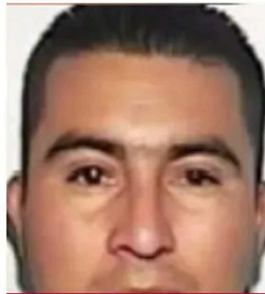

The White House

March 19, 2025

Under President Donald J. Trump, the message to criminals who bring harm and destruction to our communities is simple: you will be found, and you will face justice.

Conspiracy to Provide and Conceal Material Support and Resources to Terrorists; Narco-Terrorism
Conspiracy; Racketeering Conspiracy; Alien Smuggling Conspiracy

Captured

Yesterday, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Director Kash Patel announced the capture of another fugitive from its “Ten Most Wanted” list — initiating the extradition of a key senior leader of the brutal MS-13 gang, Francisco Javier Roman-Bardales, from Mexico to face charges in the United States. Roman-Bardales was wanted “for his alleged role in ordering numerous acts of violence against civilians and rival gang members, as well as his role in drug distribution and extortion schemes in the United States and El Salvador.”

The cold-blooded criminal is the third fugitive on the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted" list apprehended since President Trump took office.

- Arnoldo Jimenez — a fugitive wanted on first-degree murder charges — was arrested on January 30, 2025.
- Donald Eugene Fields II — a fugitive wanted on child sex trafficking and child rape charges — was arrested on January 25, 2025.

The Trump Administration will stop at nothing to keep the American people safe.
