

President Trump is Right About What's Happening in South Africa

The White House

May 21, 2025

Today, President Donald J. Trump showed the world the shocking treatment of white farmers in South Africa — including with a video montage that highlighted the discrimination and violence targeted at the innocent minority victims.

President Trump was exactly right.

- “We left because of the attacks. You can’t stay on a farm as a white person in South Africa. You know you’ll be killed,” said one South African refugee.

  - The law is vague, stating that expropriation is allowed in circumstances where it is “just and equitable and in the public interest” to do so.
- BBC: “Close to 70,000 South Africans have expressed interest in moving to the US following Washington’s offer to resettle people from the country’s Afrikaner community, a business group has said.”
- The New York Times: ‘Kill the Boer’ Song Fuels Backlash in South Africa and U.S.
  - “The political rally was winding down when the brash leader of a leftist South African party grabbed the microphone and began to stomp and chant.

Thousands of supporters joined in, and when he reached the climax, they pointed their fingers in the air like guns. ‘Kill the Boer!’ Julius Malema chanted, referring to white farmers. The crowd in a stadium in Johannesburg on Saturday roared back in approval.”
