

Anonymous

Operation DreadNought

Home

About

Online OpSec

Protesting

Project 2025
Groups

Evil People &
Groups

Disinformation
Groups

Resources

Us

We are here to fight against the fascism that has taken root in America. These people and groups are hell bent on screwing over true Americans.

Alliance Defending Freedom
Constitutional Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association

Society for American Civic Renewal (SACR) and its creator, Charles Haywood, also have financial ties with the far-right Claremont Institute.

Kiwi Farms

Farris Wilks and his wife control the Thirteen Foundation

Dan Wilks and his wife lead the Heavenly Fathers
Foundation

Prager University Foundation

EagleAI NETwork'; founder, Dr. John W. "Rick"
Richards Jr, EagleAI program has connections to Cleta
Mitchell

ULine, Richard "Dick" Uihlein and his wife, Elizabeth
"Liz" Uihlein

Beregini - russian hackers

Jeff Yass, Susquehanna International Group, Yass is also one of the top donors to the Club for Growth, an influential conservative group

American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC)

1776 Project PAC

Logan Circle Group

Dissident Homeschool

Leonard Leo

Informing America Foundation (IAF)

IAF's biggest donor is the Diana Davis Spencer Foundation, a longstanding funder of rightwing causes

Joseph Edelman - Do No Harm bills itself as a group of doctors who are concerned about ideology influencing the medical profession. The organization has not disclosed its donors or fundraising, but tax filings for the Edelman Family Foundation, which Edelman founded and chairs with his wife Susan Lebovitz-Edelman

Stronghold SOF Solutions

America First Legal (Stephen Miller)

The Servant Foundation

National Association of Christian Lawmakers, a small Christian nationalist nonprofit group based in Conway, Arkansas

Bill Ackman

Family Watch International

Society for American Civic Renewal

James and Allyson Ho

Catherine Engelbrecht has been spreading misinformation and conspiracy theories about mass voter fraud since at least 2010, when she founded her organization True the Vote

Cleta Mitchell - Election Integrity Network

Christina Bobb, a former Trump lawyer, far-right TV personality, and prominent 2020 election denier who was recently appointed to run the RNC's "election integrity unit,"

Tim Dunn

Trump's former presidential campaign manager and voter-targeting guru Brad Parscale

Sinclair Broadcast Group, owned by the arch-conservative Smith family of Baltimore

Russel Vought

Timothy Mellon

New Civil Liberties Alliance

Retired Army Lt Colonel Ivan Raiklan

Tom Jones and his American Accountability Foundation

Chris Jankowski

Human Diversity Foundation

America First Policy Institute

Curtis Yarvin

Border911 Foundation, Inc.

The America Project, a major funder of election conspiracy efforts by Michael Flynn

Overstock.com CEO Patrick Byrne

National Interest Action

Americans for Prosperity

Noah Peters, an attorney who represented white nationalist Jared Taylor and who encouraged Kyle Rittenhouse to sue his critics

James Sherk, the one-time director of the America First Policy Institute, a think tank dedicated to policies like ending funding for Planned Parenthood, opposing red-flag gun laws, opposing transgender rights and ending a slew of legal immigration policies

Andrew Kloster, the newly-appointed general counsel for the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), the federal government's human resources agency

Center for American Rights

"GlomarResponder," an overtly racist social media account, run by ICE Assistant Chief Counsel James Rodden

Idaho Freedom Foundation

Tom Oliverson, Texas politician

Gays Against Groomers

Tony Perkins and the Family Research Council

Article3

Right Wing Groups Trying to Remove Voters

Ziklag Christian Charity

Mega Rich Trump Backers

Made with Love by Anonymous Operations